

Davidson Campus Plan

2006-2007 Environmental Goals	Organizational	Allies & Challenges	Steps to take
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enviro lecture series • Ecoteam: enviro education in local elementary schools • Patterson Court (frats, etc.) recycling competition • Establish partnership w/local enviro org. • Resident hall energy conservation competition • Waste Audit: enhance recycling program • Cat CUPPS: mugs that receive discounts on campus (Can't use paper, plastic, styrofoam) • Composting of food waste • Organic garden- integrate in curriculum • Service: adopt a hiway, adopt a stream • Weekly campus blog on enviro issues 	Budget $2263.71	Who will benefit? Students, college, community	Include a timeline & appropriate tasks September Davidson land conservancy Run for Green 5K Dinner to support Jim Kahn Lecture October River Clean Up 10-14 Hiway clean up 10-21 Waste Audit 10-23 EcoTeam begins November Res. Hall competititon Possible lecture Coffeehouse to decorate reusable bags SPRING Repeat most activities Lecture series cont'd Green Ball (to benefit DLC) Earth Month Activities Grant Applications due for garden, composting, etc. Patterson Court Competitions
	Time Internship: meets every other week Organization: at least 2 hrs/week	Who will assist? Environmental Action Coalition (EAC) Miller Environmental Endowment
	Facilities/resources College EAC budget Board. . .	Who has the power to make this project happen? Students w/EAC guidance & faculty admin. support
	Leadership Interns w/Fellow EAC Board EAC Members	What are your obstacles? Sustained commitment among student body Lecture series funding Communicating w/student body as whole is difficult
	Staff/support crew ACS Fellows Chris Paradise & Cindy Hauser & EAC advisor, Annie Ingram	How can you overcome your obstacles? Good organization Fundraising, grant applications on campus Educate student body and community
	Commitment level High; Also members of the EAC executive board		