

Course Design & Assessment Workshop
The ACS Reform of Introductory Science Courses for Non-Science Majors Program
Rollins College
January 9-10, 2004

Saturday Jan 10

Sessions in the Faculty Club

- 7:45-8:15 a.m. Continental Breakfast
- 8:15-8:45 Welcome, Introductions, & Orientation
Ed Roy
- 8:45-9:45 Assessment of an Integrated Science & Math Curriculum
Bruce Callen, Physics, Drury University, Springfield, MO
Discussion, Q&A
- 9:50-11:20 Moderated by Ed Roy
(10:30-10:40 Break)
1. The Use of Studio-Format Classes in an Introductory Biology Course Beth Leuck, Centenary College
2. Summary of Models for Non-Majors Science Courses
Preston Miles, Centre College
Discussion, Q&A
- 11:20-12:05 *A First Year Experience: Teaching "How Things Work,"
For Non-Science Freshman At Sewanee*
Ben Szapiro, University of the South
Discussion, Q&A
- 12:05-12:50 Lunch
- 12:50-2:00 Tour of science classrooms/labs and meetings by disciplines
- 2:10-3:40 Moderated by Ed Roy
(Break 2:50-3:00)
1. Exploring Earth, A Revised GeoScience Course
Glenn Kroeger, Trinity University
Discussion, Q&A
2. Super Science, Tim Ward and Stan Galicki,
Millsaps College
Discussion, Q&A
- 3:40-4:45 Dialogue and Wrap-up
Ed Roy and Bruce Callen
- 4:45-5:00 Evaluation
5:00 Adjourn
- 6:30 p.m. Meet in hotel lobby for dinner at Chapters, Park Avenue, Winter Park

Sunday Jan 11

Departure

This consortial program is supported by the W.M. Keck Foundation of Los Angeles