

Academic Honor Codes (December 2011)

1. Who oversees your academic honor codes?
2. Can you send me a link to procedures?
3. Do accused students see all the information in advance of their hearings?

Davidson College

Dean of Students

<http://www3.davidson.edu/cms/x8875.xml>

The accused has full access to all evidence prior to the hearing.

Furman University

Academic deans' office for adjudication

Furman has an integrity pledge.

<http://www2.furman.edu/studentlife/studentlife/handbook/Pages/default.aspx>

Millsaps College

Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dean of the College; faculty members advise the Council during hearings

http://www.millsaps.edu/academics/honor_council_procedures.php

Rhodes College

Student-run Honor Council; advised by Director of Student Conduct, who reports to Student Affairs.

Link (go to page 49)

Students receive their packet of all information just prior to the hearing.

Southwestern University

Dean of Students

<http://www.southwestern.edu/academics/honorcode/>

Accused students do see all of the information/evidence used against them at the hearings.

University of Richmond

The Dean of Men and Dean of Women oversee the Honor Council. They report to me and the Dean of Arts and Sciences.

<http://studentdevelopment.richmond.edu/honor-and-judicial-procedures/judicial-procedures/honor-council.html>

Accused students go through a pre-trial phase where the evidence is shown to them.

Washington and Lee University

Student run; the Executive Committee that oversees it reports directly to the University's Board of Trustees on matters of honor. I work closely with them, but I do not oversee it.

Link to the White Book which outlines the process <http://www.wlu.edu/x48217.xml>