

How many of us completely close residence halls for the Thanksgiving holidays?

Birmingham-Southern University

For the second year at Birmingham-Southern, we will keep our residence halls open during the Thanksgiving break. We primarily made this change when we added our apartments which house 350+ students. Food Service is closed Thursday-Saturday. Staffing in the halls is very limited. Prior to this, we only allowed students in specific categories to stay during the break: international students, students from outside the southeast, athletes, those required to work at their jobs. The students were housed in two residences which required some of them moving into a friend's room for the break.

Centre College

We only close the residence halls for the December break and spring break, and even then work with students that can't go home/athletes/etc. We do combine students into 1 or 2 locations for the December break.

The shorter Fall and Thanksgiving breaks we deal with by having students respond to a "survey monkey"/let us know which if any meals you'll be eating on campus.

Davidson College

We only close for the December/January holiday break. We only serve meals during the Easter break on a limited basis.

Furman University

Residence halls remain open for Thanksgiving.

Millsaps

Remains open for all international students & for pre-approved varsity athletes. We close for a variety of reasons (all of which can be shared, if requested) to almost all other students.

Spelman College

Spelman's residence halls remain open to all students.

Trinity

Only closes for winter break, but accommodates athletes and international students on a somewhat limited basis.

University of Richmond

We close except for approved reasons to stay...

An Area Coordinator remains on duty; no RA's on duty.

Approved reasons:

- International students
- Fall/winter sports teams (football: both play this weekend this year)
- Far away domestic students
- In rare cases, jobs in the community

Washington and Lee University

Thanksgiving ... open ... no meals served in residence halls.