

GIS Day Open House

“Integrating GIS into the Liberal Arts Curriculum”

Rhodes College
Wed., Nov. 20, 2002
GIS Lab, Frazier Jelke 132E

Schedule of Presentations

Time	Presenter	Topic
12:30	Tony Becker Dee Garceau Marilyn Hury John Bienvenu Rich Redfearn Muhammad Shafi & Delphia Harris	The Viticultural Soils of the Napa Valley, CA Frontiers of Environment and Culture Meeman Center: Who Cares? Iraq Maps Pathways to Rhodes: Foot, bike, carpool, bus Analysis of Target Population for Student Recruitment at LeMoyne-Owen College
1:00	Chuck Stinemetz Eva Owens Lizabeth Zach/Sarah Donley Shayla White Mary Miller Allen Ryan	The Viticultural Soils of the Napa Valley, CA Geographic Location of Rhodes Physics Alumni Exploring Crime Statistics with GIS Using GIS for Community Outreach. Infectious Disease and GIS; only a beginning... Geographic Distribution of the US Biotechnology Start-Ups —1975, 1980, 1985, 1990, 1995.
1:30	Jeff Norris Kate Burgess Christine Grimm Jeff McCrary Mike Kirby John Bienvenu	Minority Applications to Rhodes Tropical Storms Earthquake Hazards Iraq Maps Using GIS for Community Outreach Crime Stopper
2:00	Bill Short, Darlene Brooks Ryan McLaughlin Tim Gibson Sarah Crisler Curtis Thomas Kate Burgess	Germantown Theater Plots an Audience Tsunami Hazards Minority Applications to Rhodes An Interdisciplinary Orientation Course for Maymester Students Using GIS for Community Outreach. Details of the Ocean Floor