

Integrating GIS into the Liberal Arts Curriculum: A Cross-Campus Seminar
Program for Oct. 12, 2002, Rhodes College

- 9:00 am Welcome Back
Introduction of Dr. Suzanne Bonefas, ACS Director of Technology Programs
- 9:10-10:00 am Presentations
- Eva Owens Geographic Locations of Rhodes Physics Alumni
- Tony Becker and Chuck Stinemetz, The Viticultural Soils of Napa Valley, CA
- Sarah Crisler An Interdisciplinary Orientation Course for Maymester Students
- Allan Ryan Geographic Distribution of US Biotechnology Start-ups--1975, 1980, 1985, 1990, and 1995
- Mary Miller Infectious disease and GIS: only the beginning.....
- 10:00- 10:30 am Break
- 10:30-12:00 Presentations
- Marilyn Hury Meeman Center: Who Cares
- Delphia Harris and Muhammad Shafi, Analysis of the Target Population for Student Recruitment at LeMoyne-Owen College
- Caley Foreman Personal Computer Ownership in Memphis, TN.
- Lizabeth Zack Exploring Crime Statistics with GIS
- Jeff Norris and Timothy Gibson, Minority Applications to Rhodes
- Bill Short Where do the Theater Patrons Live?
- Russ Wigginton An Historian's Use of GIS
- Rich Redfearn Pathways to Rhodes – Foot, Bike, Carpool, Bus
- 12:15-1:15 pm Lunch and Discussion, “How Can We Institutionalize GIS at Rhodes?” Evaluation Form.

